

EARTHQUAKE

www.internetgeography.net

Nepal 2015

On Saturday 25th of April 2015 an earthquake struck Nepal. The epicentre was just 60 kilometres north-west from the capital Kathmandu, the capital city of Nepal.

magnitude

7.6

Indian plate collides with the Eurasian

600k

damaged

Or

destroyed

8632

190009

3.5m

homeless

2.8m

displaced

$10 billion

damage

landslide killed 250

in the village of Ghodatabela

2 large aftershocks 6.6 & 6.7

landslides and rock falls

avalanche

at Mount Everest base camp killed 17 people

UK

provided 100 search and rescue, medics and rescue experts

tourist numbers declined

harvests were lost or damaged

distributed + support

$1 billion

aid from India and China

£73m UK

$200m ADB

1st phase rehabilitation